

WATERBURY

Large Number from Out of Town Attended Herbert Johnson's Funeral.

The funeral of Herbert Johnson was held from the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon, Rev. William Hessel officiating, and speaking comforting words. Favorite hymns of the deceased were softly played by Mrs. Flora Boyce Gale, organist of the church. Floral tributes were very beautiful and were under the auspices of the Junior Order of the United Mechanics and Tradesmen, the O. O. F., ritual work by C. C. Graves, E. C. Miller chaplain. There was a large attendance of members of the Old Fellow lodges and Emerald Rebekah lodge. The bearers were members of the order, Dr. J. F. Chaire, O. M. Norton, Joseph Ather, Grant Russell, Walter Edwards and E. E. Campbell.

Among those present from out of town were Miss Lillian Porter of Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Boyce, Seth Boyce and Edna Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Boyce, Arthur Boyce, Mrs. Charles Polson, Mrs. Hattie Gallagher and Miss Agnes Seely of Waterville, Mr. and Mrs. James Pease of Waterville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Emma Babcock and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sterling of Moretown and Mrs. Byron Palmer of Middlesex.

Mrs. Carrie Robinson, who has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Griffith, has returned to her home in East Montpelier.

Street delivery of mail is receiving a prominent place in the discussion of the citizens these days. Monday night the Twenty-Five club went on record as favoring it and elected the following committee, Rev. J. C. Prince, M. H. Moody and Walter Edwards to confer with a probable committee from the board of trade and push on the matter if possible to a favorable action. Monday night was the first meeting for the season of the Twenty-Five club and the following officers were elected: President, John H. Burleigh; vice-president, Dr. J. C. O'Neill; secretary and treasurer, C. B. Adams; chairman of membership committee, A. G. Wheeler, and of the program committee, Supt. M. H. Willis. Monday evening, W. R. Riley, engineer for the Magnesia Talc company, gave a most interesting and helpful paper on "The Vermont Talc Industry from an Engineer's Standpoint." The next meeting will be Nov. 6 and will be in charge of Burton Luce.

Ralph Colton has returned from Brockton and entered the employ of the American Clothing company.

S. W. Gupit was in Middlesex last evening, attending the meeting of the local New England Milk Producers' association. Mr. Gupit is the county president.

Mrs. Jesse Carpenter has returned from Burlington, where she went because of the serious condition of the little daughter of her brother, Clinton Wissell, of Middlesex.

Plans are being made by Waterbury, post No. 59, American Legion, for a worthy celebration of Armistice day.

Last Sunday and over the end of the week Mr. and Mrs. William Porter had all their children and grandchildren at home. Miss Helen Porter has been home from Burlington for some time. There were also Mr. and Mrs. Earl Porter and daughter, Thesalia, of Ticonderoga, N. Y.; Lawrence Porter, who is driving one of the state trucks, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Davis and family of Montpelier.

SOUTH CABOT

Mr. and Mrs. Lamson and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson of Springfield, Mass., visited at Colen Cassidy's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Woodward returned from Barre City hospital last Sunday.

Harry Flanders was in Orleans Monday for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hall and Mrs. Carroll St. John were in Barre on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Morse were in Montpelier one day recently.

"LISTEN TO ME" GORGEOUS MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA COMING TO BARRE SATURDAY.

What the London, Ontario, Advertiser under date of Sept. 30 says of "Listen to Me":

Charming Musical Comedy Captivates Crowded Audience With Beauty and Melody.

"Listen to Me," the musical comedy presented at the Grand theatre Friday night, carried with it an atmosphere of prettiness, daintiness, cleverness and utterly charming vivaciousness.

There rippled throughout a vein of spontaneous gaiety which thrilled the audience into happy smiles, and it must have been that the house, so important a factor in the success of a play, sensed that something good was coming, for it was filled to capacity.

The company is large numerically and clever individually. Barbara Bronell, billed as the dancing doll of the stage, is petite and pretty. She sings nicely, but it is her dancing numbers that catch the crowds and she has many of them running the gamut from the most difficult toe steps to eccentric dances. Miss Bronell's dancing partner, Chester M. Gates, assists her materially in her dancing numbers. A feature of the first scene is the clever make-up of the dainty little star, to look like Mary Pickford, a likeness startling in its fidelity.

Chorus Pleases. As for the chorus, one could go farther and find none better. They were all pretty, all lithe and graceful, and wore the most charming of costumes, with one especially striking outfit, made entirely of crepe paper.

The lighting effects showed the skill of an artist and added extensively to the beauty of the entire presentation. There was consummate cleverness shown in one scene, which depicted the north pole with the lights of the Aurora Borealis, sparkling in the background.

"Listen to Me" is presented at the Grand theatre again Saturday matinee and evening, and will easily bear comparison with any musical comedy shown here for a long time—adv.

Have You Heat Flashes?

Are You Nervous, Miserable?

All Women Need a Tonic at Some Period of Life. Read this: Schenectady, N. Y.—"Women who have reached middle life and are distressed with heat flashes, nervousness and a generally miserable state of health, will find great relief and renewed health in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This splendid tonic and nerve bracer brought me through this critical period in such good condition that I would never hesitate to recommend it to all women who are ailing, weak and nervous, and especially to those passing through the time of middle life."—Mrs. Sadie Thurston, 400 Veeder street.

Go to your nearest drug store and obtain this Prescription of Dr. Pierce's now in tablets or liquid, or write Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for free advice.—adv.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Mrs. Julia M. Johnson has gone to Richmond for the winter. She is to be with her daughter, Myrtle, Mrs. Fred Currier.

Miss Elizabeth Nelson, teacher of French, Latin and home economics in the high school, has finished her engagement and gone to her home in Fitchburg, Mass.

Papers have been signed, conveying the small farm on the Chelsea road from Mrs. Ida Covell Martin to Albert Denison. Mr. Denison has been a tenant on the place for about two years.

Several local people have combined for a community sale of household goods, farming tools, horses, cows, etc. to be held next Saturday at the home of the late Henry Stewart, known as the N. B. Farnham place, at 12:30 p. m. The auctioneer is to be Hiram S. Drury. Those having articles to be sold may bring them to this sale.

Someone of an inquiring turn of mind has counted up the various moves made by parties in town during the past two months and got up to 29 and then accidentally lost count.

One of the McAllister company trucks, driven by Tom Jeffords, was in Waterville the first of the week to get sled stock for the use of blacksmith Arthur LeDuc, who was a passenger on the trip.

William E. Morrison has sold his farm near Leon Poor's to Herbert N. Farnham, and has moved to the house lately vacated by Mrs. Julia M. Johnson.

The Winoski Valley Superintendents' association held a meeting in town on the 18th in firemen's hall. An interesting program was carried out. Miss Ida Brownell, a former teacher in the high school and now holding a similar position in the high school at Morrisville, was here as the guest of Mrs. Fannie Dow over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ellenwood of South Barre were guests at W. W. Cary's on the west hill last Sunday. Just received large shipment of pianos. Can be seen at our store, Littlefield Piano Co., formerly Bailey's Music Rooms, Barre.—adv.

SULPHUR ENDS FIERY ECZEMA

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Menthol Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up.

Rowles Menthol Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith of Montpelier visited Sunday at Mrs. Mary Wheatley's.

Madam Farnsworth of Randolph Center spent the end of the week with her son's people, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Farnsworth.

George Wight is working for G. K. Sprague.

Last Saturday afternoon, 10 girls met at the home of Mrs. E. G. Harrington and happily surprised Miss Addie Harrington by giving her a miscellaneous shower in honor of her approaching marriage to Clyde Brown.

The contents of the "little brown house," which was presented her, proved her popularity among her friends. Delicious refreshments in quaint individual boxes were served by the hostess. At a late hour, the girls left, wishing Addie much happiness in the future.
